

How do I get Divorced?

Firstly, you need to have been separated from your partner for 12 months.

When you come into see us to arrange your divorce, we can complete your divorce application in one visit using our computerised legal system.

It will then take about 2 months for the Court to deal with your application.

One month after the court has looked at your application, your divorce will become final.

Remember...

Your money and property doesn't need to be divided before you get divorced. We can arrange your divorce without you needing to go to Court if you don't have children under 18.

You'll probably have to go to Court if you do have children under 18. However we'll carefully explain what happens in Court and look after you when you get there. We'll keep the whole experience as simple as possible.

Your relationship breakdown may be one of the most stressful experiences you'll ever have. At Andrew Warren Associates we understand your divorce should be dealt with quickly and sensitively. You may be worried about the costs of your divorce. We'll estimate and explain these to you clearly on your first visit, and we'll also give you that estimate in writing. We can also help by arranging flexible payment options. If you have any more questions on your separation or divorce, please ask us.
