2014 State Volunteer Awards

Nominations for the 2014 State Volunteer Awards are now open.

The 2014 State Volunteer Awards recognise and celebrate the contribution of individuals, community organisations and businesses who contribute to South Australia's volunteering community.

Anyone can nominate eligible recipients for these awards and self-nominations will be accepted.

Award categories include:

- Joy Noble Medal: honours individual volunteers and is South Australia's highest distinction for recognising the outstanding efforts of an individual volunteer within the State.
- 'The Andamooka' Community Project Award: recognises community projects where the contribution of volunteers has resulted in significant community benefit.
- Premier's Award for Corporate Social Responsibility: acknowledges the invaluable contribution of South Australian businesses to the community through philanthropy, partnership and volunteer programs.

The awards will be presented at a special ceremony on Volunteers Day, Monday 9 June 2014, at the Festival Theatre.

For more information, and to nominate, visit the Office for Volunteers website at www.ofv.sa.gov.au or phone 1300 014 712.

Express your thanks and celebrate the contribution of volunteers. Applications close Friday 9 May 2014.
