NOW OPEN! The 2014 Governor's Multicultural Awards

The Governor's Multicultural Awards are designed to recognise and celebrate South Australian organisations and individuals who promote multiculturalism and increase understanding of the benefits of cultural diversity and community.

Categories include a new award, the Senior Volunteer Award, for individuals who have devoted 20 or more years to the multicultural community.

Nominations for the awards are open until Friday 7 November 2014, with winners to be announced at an official award presentation at Government House in March 2015. To nominate online, or for more information visit the Multicultural SA website at www.multicultural.sa.gov.au.

The Governor's Multicultural Awards are administered by Multicultural SA and awarded by the Governor of South Australia, on the advice of an independent judging panel chosen in consultation with the Multicultural Communities Council of SA.
